

British Values

11th – 17th October 2021

Tolerance

We all have different opinions, beliefs and values so our role models will be different too. Being tolerant of our differences means people feel accepted and free to be who they want to be.

11th October 2021

UN Rights of a Child

We are all different, but governments must make sure that we can all equally enjoy our rights.

