

Democracy

We all have a voice and can share our opinions. Sometimes raising awareness of an issue, such as British Sign Language having no legal status in the UK, can make an impact.

UN Rights of a Child

We all have the right to actively participate in school, at home and in our community. A disability or impairment should not be a barrier.

